

Career Moves

Career Moves is the first online job platform that gives disabled and non-disabled people equal opportunities to apply for jobs. Based in Austria, Career Moves works with established international and local businesses to advertise jobs suitable for people with disabilities. It also raises awareness about disability in the workplace, breaking down the prejudices associated with employing someone who is disabled and focusing on the competitive advantage employers get by becoming disability smart.